

tres upon either real or personal property, as collectors of county taxes, and shall give bond in a sufficient amount to indemnify said town against any loss.

1870, ch. 69.

315. They shall have power to appoint all other officers not herein named, who may be deemed necessary to execute the powers of said corporation, and the laws thereof.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 21, sec. 226.

316. The said corporation shall not issue any note, certificate or other device to be circulated as money.

LIQUOR AND INTOXICATING DRINKS.

1870, ch. 151.

317. No booths or stalls shall be erected or opened at which spirituous or fermented liquors shall be sold or exposed for sale within one-quarter of a mile from the grounds of the Agricultural and Mechanical association of Washington county, during the time that any fair or other exhibition is being held on the grounds of said association, unless permission to erect and open such booths or stalls shall have been first had and obtained from said association; provided, that this section shall not be construed to apply to any regular places of business.

1882, ch. 121.

318. It shall not be lawful for any person, licensed or unlicensed, directly or indirectly to barter, sell, exchange, trade or deal in any kind of spirituous or fermented liquors or intoxicating drinks of any kind upon the graded road leading from the Western Maryland railroad to High Rock, in Washington county, or at any place in this State, within one-quarter of a mile from any part of said graded road, between said railroad and High Rock, or within one-quarter of a mile of any building at High Rock, or Pen Mar station, or to place or distribute any signs, cards or other devices inviting to the purchase, exchange or barter of any spirituous or fermented liquors or intoxicating drinks, or to solicit the purchase of the same within the limits of the one-quarter of a mile aforesaid.