

third, the applicant shall at the same time also file with the said clerk, a bond, with security, to be approved by the said clerk, in the penal sum of five hundred dollars, for the faithful performance of the matters and things stated in his application, and for the payment of all fines, penalties and costs which may be imposed upon the applicant for the violation of this or any laws relating to or regulating or providing for the sale of liquors aforesaid.

321. In addition to the sum now required by law for a license to sell such liquors in quantities less than a pint, the clerk shall demand and receive before issuing such license, from the person applying for the same, the sum of fifty dollars, and also fifty cents as a fee to the clerk, in addition to that now allowed by law.

322. If the person applying intends to sell spirituous and fermented liquors in quantities more than a pint, or intends to sell ale and lager beer, or either, and no other liquors, in quantities less or more than a pint, whether said person manufactures or brews said liquors or buys them for sale, and whether said person pays a State license or not, the sum of twenty-five dollars shall be charged, and also the fee of fifty cents to the clerk as above provided.

1886, ch. 248. 1888, ch. 499

323. All sums of money received by the said clerk under the provisions of the two preceding sections, except the fees allowed herein, and a commission of three per cent. on all sums collected by him for licenses, shall be by him paid over to the county commissioners of said county on the first Monday of March, June, September and December, to be by them applied to the payment of court expenses; and the bond of said clerk shall be liable for all monies received under said sections, and not paid over as hereinbefore directed.

324. Any person violating any of the provisions of section 320, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction, be liable to a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, or imprisonment in jail for not more
