

than sixty days, and shall have his license suppressed, in the discretion of the court.

1886, ch. 248.

325. Any person under the age of twenty-one years, who obtains by misrepresentation or false statement as to his age, any spirituous or fermented liquors from any person licensed to sell such liquors under the provisions of sections 320 to 322, and any person obtaining such liquors for a person under said age, by misrepresentation or false statement as to his age, from any person licensed as aforesaid, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than five dollars, or confined in the county jail not less than thirty days, or both, in the discretion of the court.

LIVERY STABLES.

1876, ch. 157.

326. It shall be lawful for any livery stable keeper in Washington county to retain in his custody any horse, mare or gelding placed under his care for livery, and also any vehicle, until all charges for their keeping shall have been paid by the owner.

Ibid.

327. It shall and may be lawful for such livery stable keeper to sell any such horse, mare or gelding, or vehicle, at public auction, for cash, in Hagerstown, in said county, after giving at least three weeks' public notice of the time, place and terms of sale, in one or more newspapers published in said county, prior to the day of sale; and after deducting the amount due for such keeping, together with all the expenses attending said sale, he shall pay over the surplus, if any, to the owner of such horse, mare or gelding, or vehicle.

Ibid.

328. Before proceeding as above, it shall be necessary for such livery stable keeper to state an account for the keeping of such horse, mare or gelding, or vehicle, and prove the same before a justice of the peace for the county, who, upon being satisfied by proof of demand, and refusal or neglect to pay on the part of the owner of said property, shall thereupon issue his warrant authorizing such sale as aforesaid; provided, that the proprietor of such
