

livery stables shall set up on his premises, in some conspicuous place, a copy of this sub-title of this article, printed in large type, together with his rates of livery.

PUBLICATION OF PUBLIC LOCAL LAWS.

1874, ch 32.

329. Every public local law for Washington county, made to take effect before the first day of June next after the session at which it may be passed, shall immediately after its passage be published by the county commissioners, in at least one newspaper, printed and published in the county, once in each of three successive weeks; and the county commissioners shall also advertise or publish all other matters that it may be necessary for them to advertise or publish in the county, in at least one newspaper, printed and published in the county; and they shall provide for the payment of the expenses of such publication and advertising.

REGISTER OF WILLS.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 21, sec. 228.

330. The county commissioners shall not pass or order the payment of any account for fuel, paper or stationery for the register of wills for said county.

ROADS.

P. L. L. (1860,) art 21, sec. 229.

331. No road shall be constructed in Washington county, so as to pass between any dwelling-house and spring, well or reservoir of water used and necessary for family purposes, without permission of the owner; provided, such spring, well or reservoir is not situated more than two hundred yards from the dwelling-house; and provided also, that the tenants in possession of said dwelling are the legal and bona fide proprietors of the premises upon which both said dwelling, spring or reservoir are situated.

1876, ch. 184.

332. No road shall be opened or altered so as to pass through the buildings, yards, garden, burial ground or orchard of any person, without the consent of the owner thereof.