FISH.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 3, sec. 109.

96. No person shall destroy the fish in any branch or creek in Baltimore county, by putting quick lime therein, under the penalty of twenty dollars for each offence, to be recovered before a justice of the peace of said county, one-half to the informer and the other half to the use of the county.

1880, ch. 76.

97. It shall not be lawful for any person to take, capture or destroy fish by seines, drag-nets, set-nets, dip-nets, stir-nets, fish baskets or fish pots, eel weirs, brush or fascine nets, or by any means or contrivances whatever of the nature of a seine, which are known to destroy or capture fish, or to destroy or capture them by shooting or striking through the ice, or otherwise, than by hook and line, commonly known as angling, in the Patapsco river, above the point where the old turnpike road from Baltimore to Washington crosses the said river.

1874, ch. 79.

98. Any person offending against the provisions of the preceding section, shall be liable, upon conviction thereof, by summary process before any justice of the peace of this State, in and for the county where the act is committed, to a penalty of not less than ten nor more than thirty dollars, one-third to the informer, one-third to the constable making the arrest, and the balance to the treasurer of the board of county school commissioners, for school purposes; provided, that any person so offending, on conviction thereof, as aforesaid, who shall refuse or fail to pay said fine imposed, and the cost thereon, shall be imprisoned in the jail of the county in which the act shall be committed, for not less than ten nor more than twenty days.
