

county, for the arrest of the offender, and to bring such offender before said justice or any other justice of the peace of said county; and upon conviction thereof the said offender shall be fined not less than five or more than one hundred dollars, together with the costs of the proceedings, to be taxed as costs in other criminal proceedings; one-half of said fine to be paid to the informer, and the other half to the Washington county water company; and in case of the non-payment of such fine and costs imposed by said justice, the said offender shall be committed to the county jail for a period not less than three days or more than fifty days, or until such fine and costs are paid.

1882, ch. 21.

400. In addition to the remedy and punishment provided for in the preceding section, the said water company is authorized and empowered, by informations or petitions filed in its name, to apply to the judge or to any judge of the circuit court for Washington county, in term time or vacation, for an injunction to restrain and prevent the nuisances and evils intended to be prevented by this sub-title of this article, no matter by whom or under what authority committed.

WILD FOWL.

1886, ch. 217.

401. It shall not be lawful for any person to shoot or kill, or shoot at, any wild fowl in, on or over the waters of and in Washington county, in the night time, with gun of any size or description whatever.

Ibid.

402. Any person who shall violate the provisions of the preceding section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before a justice of the peace of said county, shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than five nor more than fifty dollars, and upon failure to pay the same, shall be committed to jail for not less than ten nor more than twenty days; one-half of said fine to go to the informer and the other half to the school fund of the county, subject to the right of appeal and right of demand for jury trial as now allowed by law.