

1876, ch. 53.

423. The treasurer of said corporation shall at the close of each year make an itemized account of all the receipts and expenditures of said corporation during said year; also an itemized statement of all the outstanding debts of said corporation, which shall be printed and publicly put up at the place for holding the town election for the ensuing year.

WITNESSES.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 21, sec. 335.

424. The county commissioners shall levy a sufficient sum, in advance, to pay State's witnesses in said county promptly at the close of each term of the circuit court.

Ibid. sec. 336.

425. Whenever any person shall present to the collector of said county, an order from the clerk of the circuit court for his attendance as a witness, he shall pay to such person, or his order, the amount due him, after deducting therefrom all charges he may have against such witness.

WORKHOUSE.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 21, sec. 337.

426. The county commissioners shall set apart and designate suitable apartments in the jail of said county, to be known and denominated as the workhouse of Washington county, and to be kept by the sheriff, under the superintendence and control of the county commissioners.

Ibid. sec. 338.

427. Whenever any person shall become liable to be committed to the workhouse, he shall be committed to the custody of the sheriff, to be confined in said apartments for the time specified in the commitment, on low and coarse diet and at hard labor.

Ibid. sec. 339.

428. Upon complaint made to any justice of the peace for said county, that any person from his disorderly conduct gives