

FISH.

1872, ch. 170.

48. It shall not be lawful for any non-resident of the State to take or catch fish in any manner or way in the waters of the Nanticoke river without first obtaining from the clerk of the circuit court for either Wicomico or Dorchester county, a license therefor, which license shall be granted upon the payment of twenty dollars to said clerk, for the use of the State; said license shall be in force for one year from its date, and shall be confined to the boat or vessel therein named; any person not a resident of the State, violating this section, shall, upon conviction before any justice of the peace of the State for either of said counties, be subject to a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, and forfeit the boat or vessel, and all nets, seines or tackle so used in taking fish; the proceeds of said fine and forfeited property, after paying officers' fees, shall be paid to the clerk of the circuit court for the county where the case shall be tried, for the use of the State.

1876, ch. 168.

49. It shall not be lawful for any non-resident of the State to take or catch fish in any manner or way in the waters of the Wicomico river, without first obtaining from the clerk of the circuit court for either Wicomico or Somerset county a license therefor, which license shall be granted upon payment to said clerk, for the use of the State, of the sum of thirty dollars; said license shall be in force for one year from the date of its issue, and shall be confined to the boat or vessel therein named; any person not a resident of the State, violating this section, shall, upon conviction before any justice of the peace of the State for either of said counties, be subject to a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor more than one hundred dollars; and shall forfeit the boat or vessel, and nets, seines or tackle so used in taking fish; the proceeds of said fine and forfeited property, after paying officers' fees, to be paid to the clerk of the circuit court for the county where the case shall be tried, for the use of the State.
