

time within ten days from the rendition of such judgment, appeal therefrom to the circuit court for said counties, respectively; but no execution or sale shall be stayed unless the party appealing shall give bond, with security to the State in double the value of the property condemned, or of the fine imposed, as the case may be; said security to be resident of the State, who shall swear (or affirm) that he is worth double the amount of the property condemned, with condition to prosecute such appeal with effect, and to pay the value of the property condemned and fine imposed, and all costs attending such proceedings, in case such judgment shall be affirmed; and in all cases of appeal, either party shall be entitled to trial by jury.

FOXES.

1868, ch 75.

51. It shall not be lawful for any person to shoot any fox whilst pursued by sportsmen and a pack of hounds, within the limits of Wicomico county.

Ibid

52. Any person offending against the preceding section shall be fined a sum not exceeding ten dollars, at the discretion of the justice of the peace before whom he may be presented; one-half of said fine to go to the informer, the other half to be applied to the use of the poor of said county, to be recovered as other small debts are recovered.

JURORS.

1888, ch 432.

53. When the list of names selected as directed in sections 6 and 7 of article 51 of the code of public general laws, title "Juries," is made and certified as therein provided for, immediately thereupon the judges of the circuit court, in the presence of the members of the bar and such other persons as may attend, shall cause all the names selected and placed on said list to be legibly written on ballots of equal size and of the same color and appearance, which shall be closely folded and placed by said judges with their own hands, immediately before the drawing herein provided for, into a cubiform box of the square of twenty-four inches, to be procured for that purpose by the clerk of said