

for each trial, one dollar; for every commitment, twenty-five cents; for every release, twenty-five cents; for taking recognizances in each case reported to the circuit court, twenty-five cents each; for each attachment for contempt, twenty-five cents.

1884, ch. 510.

59. The aforesaid fees of said constables and justices for said counties shall be taxed against and paid by the party against whom judgment shall be rendered, unless he or she be discharged therefrom by due course of law; if such party against whom judgment is rendered is unable to pay the same, such fees shall be paid by the county wherein said judgment was rendered; and all fines and penalties received by any justice under the provisions of section 57, shall be accounted for and wholly paid without abatement or deduction therefrom by such justice, to the county commissioners of the county wherein they are collected, for the use of said county; and no part of any fine or penalty enforced or collected under said section shall be paid to any informer.

LIQUOR AND INTOXICATING DRINKS.

1884, ch. 270

60. It shall be unlawful for any person, by himself, his agent or servant, to sell intoxicating liquors in Wicomico county, except as hereinafter provided.

Ibid.

61. Any person of full age, and of good moral character, desiring to keep an inn or tavern, and to sell intoxicating liquors in quantities less than a pint, to be drunk on the premises, may be licensed to do so when the following conditions have been strictly complied with: First: he shall make application therefor in writing and file the same with the clerk of the circuit court for Wicomico county, who shall set a day, not less than twenty days from the date of the filing of said application, when the same shall be heard, clearly stating that he is a person of full age; that he is desirous of keeping an inn or tavern at some place particularly designated; that he is the owner or tenant of a suitable house for that purpose, and the yearly rental thereof; that he is provided in said house with at least three suitable rooms and five beds, for the exclusive use of travellers and guests, and has stables.