

do so shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than one hundred dollars; and in case of a second conviction for such misdemeanor, he shall forfeit his license as an additional penalty therefor, and shall not be capable of receiving a license for the space of two years thereafter; and no person licensed to sell liquors shall sell, give away or dispense any intoxicating liquor on the Sabbath day, commonly called Sunday, or on election day, general or special; and any person violating this provision shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall forfeit and pay a fine of not less than fifty nor more than one hundred dollars, and in addition shall forfeit his license and be incapable of receiving another for the space of two years thereafter.

1884, ch 270.

66. No secret or clandestine door shall be maintained or permitted in any licensed house; no disorderly, riotous or lewd conduct shall be permitted in or about any licensed house; and any person violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall forfeit and pay a fine of not less than fifty nor more than one hundred dollars, and shall forfeit his license, and be incapable of receiving another license within the space of two years.

Ibid.

67. It shall be the duty of the State's attorney to prosecute every offender under the provisions of this sub-title of this article, and to collect all fines and forfeitures incurred as soon thereafter as may be; and in addition to his salary and other emoluments of office, he shall be entitled to a commission of ten per centum on all collections, when the same are paid over to the school commissioners of said county, who shall be entitled to receive the same; and in case of his failure to pay over said fines and forfeitures as so collected, within three months after the same shall become due, his bond shall be liable to be put in suit for the same by said school commissioners.

Ibid.

68. The sale of intoxicating liquors otherwise than as provided for in this sub-title of this article shall be a misdemeanor,