

made; and whenever it shall be unlawful to sell, give away or dispense intoxicating liquors to any person, it shall be likewise unlawful in the same manner for any other person to procure, or aid in procuring it for him, and the person convicted of this offence shall pay a fine of fifty dollars.

1884, ch. 270.

73. The court may take official notice of the fact that spirituous, mixed or fermented liquors, by their usual common names, are intoxicating, except cider; but cider unmixed shall not be considered an intoxicating liquor.

Ibid.

74. Any person to whom the said clerk shall issue a license to keep an inn or tavern, or a license under section 69, or a license under section 70, shall pay to the said clerk the amount now required by the laws of this State for said license, and the further sum of twenty-five dollars, the said latter sum to be paid by said clerk to the school commissioners of said county, for the use of the public schools in said county.

Ibid.

75. Any person found drunk or disorderly, from the effects of liquor, on any street, highway or public place, may be arrested by any officer, with or without a warrant, and taken before a justice of the peace, whose duty it shall be to hear the case, and if the party be found guilty, to fine him in a sum not exceeding ten dollars and costs, and in default of payment of fine and costs, to commit him to the county jail for ten days. And it shall be the duty of every sheriff or constable to enforce the provisions of this section, and a failure so to do shall be a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof, every sheriff or constable so failing shall forfeit and pay a fine of not less than fifty nor more than one hundred dollars.

Ibid.

76. Judicial powers are hereby conferred on the clerk of the circuit court for Wicomico county for the purposes herein mentioned.

Ibid.

77. The bond of said clerk shall be liable to the school commissioners of said county for moneys paid to him under this sub-
