

ROADS.

1870, ch. 479.

113. The county commissioners shall control and regulate the public roads in Wicomico county.

1874, ch. 125.

114. They shall sub-divide each or any of the election districts of the county, and appoint a supervisor for each of said road districts.

Ibid.

115. All able-bodied male citizens of the said county, between the ages of twenty-one and fifty years, who do not reside within the limits of an incorporated town, shall be compelled to work not less than two days in every year on the public roads in the road district in which they reside; and the road supervisor, whenever the public roads shall need repairs, shall summon all such persons in his road district, or such number of them as he may deem necessary to make such repairs, giving at least two days' notice of the time and place of meeting, and what tools they must furnish; provided, however, that no non-taxpayer shall be compelled to work more than two days in one year, and that no person shall be compelled to work more than four miles from his place of residence.

Ibid.

116. If any person from whom such labor on the roads may be required under the provisions of the preceding section, shall make it satisfactorily appear to the county commissioners, that he is physically unable to perform such labor, it shall be the duty of the said commissioners to exempt such person, if he is a non-taxpayer, from the performance of the said labor.

Ibid.

117. The road supervisors may make such commutation of labor for teams, carts and wagons, as they may deem proper.

Ibid.

118. Every person liable as aforesaid to labor on said roads, who shall fail to obey the summons of the road supervisors or to furnish a substitute, shall pay to the said supervisor upon demand the sum of one dollar for each and every day he shall fail to per-
