

1876, ch. 43.

129. If any such dam or bridge shall get out of repair, and the owner, on notice from the road supervisor or county commissioners, shall neglect for the space of sixty days to repair the same, the county commissioners shall proceed to make such repairs, and the owner shall be bound to pay them for such outlay on account thereof, and the same may be collected as taxes, unless the mill shall be abandoned with its privileges, in which case the owner shall be released.

SALISBURY.

1872, ch. 230. 1888, ch. 186.

130. The inhabitants of Salisbury, Wicomico county, are made and declared a body corporate by the name of the "Mayor and Council of Salisbury," and by that name shall have perpetual succession, may sue and be sued, use a common seal and possess such powers, privileges and incidents as may attach by law to a municipal corporation; may purchase and hold real, personal and mixed property, and dispose of the same for the benefit of the said town.

1888, ch. 186.

131. The government of said town shall be vested in a mayor and five councilmen, to be selected as hereinafter provided, who shall be taxpayers and qualified voters of said town twelve months next preceding their election, and their term of office shall be two years, or until their successors are elected and qualified; provided, however, that three of the councilmen elected at the first election held under this charter, which three shall be determined by lot at their first regular meeting, shall hold their office for the term of one year only.

Ibid.

132. The taxable and corporate limits of said town shall begin at a stone on the north side of the Steamboat road, now known as Hill street, and on the east side of River street, near the property known as "Oak Hill;" thence running to a marked white oak on the southeast side of the Snow Hill county road; thence north twenty-five degrees, east to the south side of the Berlin county road; thence to the west side of Gordon H. Toadvin's mill-pond, to a point where the division line formerly existed, between the lands of Benjamin Parsons and Susan Booth;
