

1888, ch. 186.

147. For the purpose of carrying out the foregoing powers, and for the preservation of the health, cleanliness, peace and good order of the community, and for the protection of the lives and property of the citizens from fire or disease, and to suppress, or cause to be suppressed, abated or discontinued, any and all nuisances within the said limits of said town, they may pass any and all ordinances and by-laws, from time to time necessary, and to enforce and insure the observance of the said ordinances in addition to an action in debt, or such other civil remedies as may exist in such cases by law for the recovery of fees, fines and penalties thereto affixed; they may affix thereto reasonable fines, and in default of payment of any fine so imposed, they may provide for the imprisonment of the offender for a period not exceeding thirty days, in the county jail, or until such fines are paid; and instead of the foregoing penalties it shall be lawful in the case of vagrancy, to sentence such person to hard labor on the public streets not exceeding ten days.

Ibid

148. All ordinances and by-laws passed by the council shall be sent to the mayor for his approval; he shall return the same to the next stated or special meeting of the council, with his approval or his disapproval; and any ordinance or by-law returned by the mayor without his approval shall not become a law unless subsequently passed at a regular meeting by a four-fifths vote of the whole council, and within sixty days from the time of the return of the ordinance.

Ibid.

149. All ordinances and by-laws heretofore passed by the commissioners of Salisbury, and now in force, and not in conflict with the provisions of this charter, shall be valid and remain in force until the same are repealed, amended or modified by the mayor and council.

Ibid.

150. From any judgment rendered by the police justice in the enforcement of the ordinances of the town, an appeal shall lie by the party aggrieved to the circuit court for Wicomico county; provided, the appeal is taken within thirty days after the rendering of such judgment; but no appeal shall stay process or
