

before the first day of October of said year, they shall allow a deduction of four per centum thereof; and to all who shall pay the same on or before the first day of November of said year, they shall allow a deduction of three per centum thereof; and at the time of receiving said taxes, the collectors shall make the deduction aforesaid and note the same upon the receipts given to the persons or incorporated institutions so paying; and upon all taxes which shall be in arrears and unpaid by the first day of January next succeeding the year for which they were levied, the said collectors shall charge and collect, and the delinquent taxpayers shall pay interest until the said taxes are paid, to be noted on the receipts or vouchers given for the payment of such taxes in arrears as aforesaid, and added to the amount thereof; and for payment over to the county commissioners, or to their order, the bonds of said collectors shall be liable in the same manner, and to the like extent, as herein provided for the principal sums of the taxes placed in their hands for collection, on which the same may become payable by the default in payment of the taxpayers owing the same for the time and periods hereinbefore stated.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 1, sec. 21.

44. The county commissioners of said county shall levy annually, for the use of the crier of the circuit court for said county, a sum sufficient to pay him two dollars a day for each day he shall be employed as crier of the said court, and they shall pay the same to the crier at the close of each session of the court.

CUMBERLAND.

1878, ch. 484.

45. The inhabitants of the city of Cumberland, in Allegany county, are a corporation by the name of the Mayor and City Council of Cumberland, and by that name may sue and be sued, may have and use a common seal, which may be altered at pleasure, and may purchase and hold real, personal or mixed property, or dispose of the same for the benefit of said city; provided, that the purchase or alienation of such real estate when the value thereof shall exceed the sum of ten thousand dollars, shall be first submitted to the voters of the city, either at a
