

is recorded, or shall secrete, destroy or sell the same, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon indictment therefor and conviction thereof, shall be fined or imprisoned, or both, in the same manner and to the same extent as provided for offenders against the provisions of section 111 of article 27 of the code of public general laws, title "Crimes and Punishments." This section shall apply only to the counties of Wicomico, St. Mary's, Worcester, Caroline and Anne Arundel.

1888, ch 516

183. If said service money shall not be paid, the owner of said stallion, upon applying to some justice of the peace of the State, in and for the county in which the owner of said progeny resides, and swearing to the correctness of his claim, shall have issued a writ of feri facias upon the said progeny, which writ shall be directed to some constable or other officer, who thereupon shall seize said progeny and sell the same under the provisions of the code of public general laws regulating sales under execution from justices of the peace.

Ibid.

184. After the expenses attending such sale, and the amount of the lien upon said progeny have been satisfied, the balance, if any, shall be paid to the owner of such property sold.

STATE'S ATTORNEY.

185. In all civil or criminal cases which the State's attorney for Wicomico county shall appear in and try, when it is his duty to appear in and try the same, any judge of the first judicial circuit may, in his discretion, allow him such additional fees, in addition to what is now allowed by law, in each and every case, as the said judge may think just and proper, to be levied by the county commissioners; provided, that no additional fees shall be allowed when the total appearances and trial fees allowed by law to said State's attorney amount to the sum of one thousand dollars in any one year; and provided further, that this section
