

clean the same whenever it may be full, or sooner on notice of said sanitary officers, as made and provided for in section 118, with like penalties therein prescribed for failure or neglect.

1884, ch. 512.

127. The earth-pits now in use for privies or water-closets shall be filled up with dirt and the said boxes shall rest on or over and above the earth surface; shall be easy of access; shall be in their construction, location and situation, subject to the inspection of said sanitary officers, and if found by the said officers defective in construction, location or situation, the necessary changes so ordered by the sanitary officers shall be made, and on the neglect or refusal of said property-owners to have placed such boxes, or to have them made and located, as in the judgment of the sanitary inspectors seems best, in either case a fine of five dollars shall be imposed as in manner prescribed in section 118; provided, that this and the preceding section shall be intended to apply to earth privies and other defective water-closets, and shall not be construed so as to preclude any other kind of privy vaults built on correct sanitary principles.

Ibid.

128. It shall be unlawful to bury the contents of privies or other offal, or deposit the same within half a mile of the limits of any town, or within a reasonable distance from any dwelling-house outside of town limits, in the districts named in the five preceding sections, under a penalty of a fine of five dollars.

Ibid.

129. It shall be the duty of said sanitary officers, on the prepayment of a reasonable sum, not exceeding fifty cents per box, to direct the garbage force to remove the contents of privies; such money to be applied by the county commissioners to the sanitary fund.

Ibid.

130. The said sanitary officers shall have full dower to examine into all alleys, by-ways and highways in their respective districts, and upon the report of said sanitary officers of the conditions of any alley, by-way or highway being prejudicial to the
