

health of the neighborhood, it shall be the duty of the county commissioners to examine the same, and have made such repairs in the grading, paving and draining of such alley, by-way or highway as may be necessary, taxing the property binding thereon one-half the cost of said improvements.

1884, ch. 512.

131. It shall be unlawful for any person to keep a hog-pen or pig-pen within fifty feet of any dwelling-house, well or spring, the water of which may be used for drinking or cooking purposes, in Canton, Catonsville, Towson, and their vicinities, under a penalty of not less than ten dollars; and the said sanitary officers shall immediately remove the same.

Ibid.

132. All such fines and penalties shall be collected before a justice of the peace of Baltimore county in the manner prescribed by section 118.

HORSE RAILWAYS.

1888, ch. 457.

133. All suburban or county horse railways in Baltimore county now in existence, or which may hereafter be incorporated in said county, are allowed and authorized to use the Roberts Noiseless Steam Motor as a motive power on any of their said railways; provided, that the said motive power used in propelling the cars operated on said railways shall not discharge or exhaust any smoke or steam into the open air.

JURORS.

P. L. L., (1860.) art. 3, sec. 122.

134. The county commissioners shall levy annually, such sum of money as they may deem sufficient to pay the expenses and charges for the succeeding year, for the attendance of jurors summoned to the circuit court for the county.

Ibid. sec. 123.

135. The clerk of said court shall, immediately upon the discharge of any juror, make out and deliver to him on demand,
