sum not less than two dollars and not more than ten dollars, for each offence, with costs of prosecution; and all prosecutions under said sections shall be in the name of the State, before a justice of the peace of the election district in which such violation may occur; and of all such fines, when collected, one-half shall be paid to the informer and the other half to the county commissioners of said county, to be applied by them to the support of the public schools of said county.

55. The possession by any person within said county of any of the birds protected by section 52, captured, shot, killed or otherwise destroyed, shall be prima facie evidence of the violation by such person of the provisions of said section; and it shall be the duty of the constables of said county to arrest all persons they may detect in, or who may be charged with, the violation of any of the provisions of sections 52 and 53, and take them before the nearest justice of the peace, to be dealt with according to law.

56. It shall not be lawful for any person in Worcester county to shoot, kill, catch or in any way entrap any rabbit in said county, between the fifteenth day of January and the first day of November in each and every year.

Ibid.

57. Any person violating any of the provisions of the preceding section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof, before any justice of the peace of said county, shall pay a fine of five dollars for each and every rabbit shot or taken.

1886, ch. 76. 1888, ch. 149.

58. No person, corporation or company shall at any time kill, or expose for sale, transport or have in possession, any partridge or quail, after the same has been killed, for any purpose except for consumption as food, within Worcester or Wicomico counties, nor kill, expose for sale, or have in possession, any of the above named game with the intention of sending or transporting, or having the same sent or transported, beyond the limits of said counties; provided, that nothing herein contained shall prevent
