

the barter or sale of such game for home consumption only by residents of said counties within the limits of said counties.

1888, ch. 149.

59. Any person violating any of the provisions of the preceding section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before any justice of the peace of Worcester or Wicomico counties, as the case may be, or before the circuit court for either of said counties, having jurisdiction, shall be fined not less than five dollars nor more than twenty-five dollars for each offence, and stand committed until fine and costs are paid; said fine to go to the informer upon whose evidence the conviction is obtained.

BISHOPVILLE.

1884, ch. 70.

60. The citizens of the town of Bishopville, in Worcester county are constituted a body corporate, by the name of "The Commissioners of Bishopville," and by that name may sue and be sued, have and use a common seal, and have perpetual succession.

Ibid.

61. The bounds and limits of the said town are as follows, to wit: beginning at a crossing on the St. Martin's river, known as the wading place, on the outskirts of said town, running thence a northeasterly direction to the east corner of a graveyard in William H. Collins' field; thence with a straight line to the Delaware line, where the county road leading out of said town intersects said State line; thence with said State line to a bridge near the house of James Timmons on the public road leading out of said town; thence with a straight line to the house of William Taylor on a public road; thence with a straight line to a bridge on the county road at Tull's branch; thence to the aforesaid river and place of beginning; and the commissioners of said town may make such alterations in said limits as they may deem advisable, and cause the same to be surveyed by a competent surveyor, and the boundaries thereof to be established, and the record thereof to be filed amongst the records of the corporation.
