

all the fines and forfeitures received for the violation of the town ordinances, and no more. The said bailiff shall enforce the ordinances of said town, and in the execution of the duties of his office shall have all and the same powers that a constable has in criminal cases. On entering upon the duties of his office he shall make oath before one of the said commissioners that he will faithfully and impartially execute the duties of his office according to the best of his skill and judgment, without favor or prejudice, and shall also give bond to the State of Maryland in such penalty as the commissioners may direct, and with sureties to be approved by them, for the faithful performance of his duties as bailiff; and the said bond shall be recorded in the office of the clerk of the circuit court for Worcester county.

1884, ch. 70.

75. They may pass all ordinances, not contrary to law, necessary to give effect and operation to the powers vested in them.

Ibid.

76. All ordinances enacted by the said commissioners shall be immediately made public by printed handbills posted in not less than six conspicuous places in said town.

Ibid.

77. It shall not be lawful for any person, or any house, company or association, or body corporate, to sell, directly or indirectly, at any place, or to give away at his or their place of business, any spirituous, fermented or intoxicating liquors or alcoholic bitters, or intoxicating drinks of any kind, within the limits of said town of Bishopville, as bounded by section 61.

Ibid.

78. If any person, house, company, association or body corporate shall sell, directly or indirectly, at any place, or give away at his or their place of business, any spirituous, fermented or intoxicating liquors or alcoholic bitters, or intoxicating drinks of any kind, within the limits of the said town of Bishopville, as bounded by section 61, he or they shall, on conviction thereof, be fined not less than one hundred dollars nor more than two hundred dollars, and be imprisoned in the county jail ten days for each offence.
