

1884, ch. 70

79. All of the provisions of the two preceding sections shall apply to druggists, apothecaries and pharmacists the same as to any other person, house, company, association or body corporate; and if any druggist, apothecary or pharmacist shall violate any of the provisions of said sections, he shall be punished in the same manner and to the same extent as any other person, or any house, company, association or body corporate shall be punished for a violation of the provisions of said sections, and in the same manner and to the same extent as if said druggist, apothecary and pharmacist were not a druggist, apothecary or pharmacist.

Ibid.

80. All prosecutions for the violations of the provisions of said sections 77 and 78, may be either upon presentment and indictment, or by trial before any justice of the peace of said county, who shall have jurisdiction, original and concurrent, with the circuit court for said county; provided, that any person who shall feel himself aggrieved by a decision of a justice of the peace, shall have in every case the right of appeal to the circuit court for said county.

CIRCUIT COURT.

1868, ch. 57.

81. There shall be four terms of the circuit court for Worcester county, to be held at Snow Hill, commencing on the third Monday of the months of January, May and July, and the fourth Monday of October.

P. L. L., (1860,) art 22, sec. 33.

82. Juries shall be summoned for the May and October terms only.

Ibid. sec. 34.

83. The judges of said court shall have power to pass all such rules as shall be necessary to facilitate the transaction of business in said court; provided, such rules shall provide for the transaction of equity business; and the said court for equity business shall be considered to be always open.
