

CLERK.

1884, ch. 313.

84. The clerk of the circuit court for Worcester county shall not be subject to the provisions of the act of 1884, chapter 313.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

P. L. L., (1860,) art 22, sec. 36.

85. The clerk to the county commissioners shall be allowed such compensation as they may think proper, not exceeding the sum of three hundred and fifty dollars per annum.

Ibid. sec. 37.

86. He shall be entitled to twenty-five cents each for making out and delivering to the sheriff, certificates of the appointment of trustees of the poor.

1870, ch 321.

87. The county commissioners shall cause a correct copy of their levy list to be made out, showing the amount of such levy and the objects for which the same was made, under general heads; and shall cause the same to be published in a newspaper printed in said county, for at least three successive weeks previous to the first Wednesday in November, in each year; provided, that not more than seventy dollars be allowed to any paper for such service.

1880, ch 112.

88. In all cases where they are by law required to give any public notice whatsoever, by advertising in a newspaper, they are authorized and empowered, in their discretion, either to so advertise, as by law required, or if they think proper in lieu thereof, to give public notice by posting printed or written handbills containing the same matter or facts required to be advertised, in at least three public places in each election district of said county, at the same time as such notices or advertisements are by law required to be inserted in the said newspapers.

1888, ch. 243.

89. They shall not levy any money, nor be liable to pay for any printing or advertising, unless they shall have previously contracted for the same, which said contract shall specify the
