FOX HUNTERS.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 22, sec. 51.

105. Any person who shall be convicted of shooting any fox whilst pursued by dogs in said county, shall be liable to a fine of five dollars for each and every offence, to be recovered before any justice of the peace of said county as other small debts are recoverable.

GIRDLE-TREE.

1884, ch. 261.

106. The citizens of Girdle-Tree, in Worcester county, are constituted a body corporate, by the name of "The Commissioners of Girdle-Tree," and by that name may sue and be sued, and have and use a common seal.

Ibid.

107. The limits of said town shall extend to the distance of one-half of a mile each way, from the centre of the street, at a point opposite to the Methodist Episcopal church in said town.

Ibid.

108. The male citizens of said town, of the age of twenty-one years and upwards, who have resided in said town for six months next preceding the election, shall elect by ballot on the first Monday in June, annually, five freeholders, who have resided in said town for six months next preceding said election, as commissioners of said town.

Ibid.

109. All elections shall be held and conducted as shall from time to time be directed by the laws of said corporation, not inconsistent with this sub-title of this article.

Ibid.

110. At their first meeting after an election, the said commissioners shall elect one of their number president of the board, who shall preside at their meetings and preserve order and enforce the provisions of this charter and the ordinances of said corporation.
