

1876, ch. 146

141. The provisions of this sub-title of this article shall not apply to sales by the manufacturer of cider which is not drunk on the premises of the manufacturer, nor to sales of spirituous or fermented liquors by the manufacturer thereof, to any person licensed to sell intoxicating liquor in said county.

Ibid.

142. Any vendor of intoxicating liquor sold in said county shall be liable to pay damages to any husband, wife, parent, employer or other person injured by reason of any person being intoxicated, in whole or in part, by liquor sold by said vendor; said damages to be ascertained by a justice of the peace for said county, when the sum claimed does not exceed five dollars, without appeal, but if the amount claimed shall exceed five dollars, then in the same manner as debts for like amounts are now recovered by law.

Ibid.

143. Nothing in this sub-title of this article shall be construed to authorize any sale or barter or giving away of any spirituous or fermented liquor or lager beer on the Sabbath day, commonly called Sunday, or on the day of any election held in said county under the constitution and laws of this State or of the United States.

Ibid.

144. In any prosecution under this sub-title of this article, it shall only be necessary to state that the traverser did sell, barter or give away spirituous liquor or fermented liquor without specifying the particular kind of liquor so sold, bartered or given away.

1888, ch. 135.

145. All fines imposed under the provisions of this sub-title of this article shall be paid over to the board of county school commissioners of Worcester county for the benefit of the public schools of said county.

NAVIGATION.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 22, sec. 58.

146. All weirs and trees in Dividing creek anywhere below where the tide is known to run, which stop the passage of scows