

business in his district, the proprietors whereof are required to have licenses, immediately before the May and December terms of the court, and shall require the proprietor of each place of business to produce a license; and in case of refusal to produce the same, the constable shall arrest the proprietor so refusing and take him before a justice of the peace, who shall take recognizance from him, with security, to appear before the next term of court to answer the charge of selling without license; and if, upon trial of such person so recognized, he shall produce a license, the court may, in its discretion, cause the party indicted to pay the costs of the prosecution as a punishment for his refusal to produce the license when required by the constable; and the said constables shall return to the grand juries for the said terms of the circuit court correct lists of all the places of business in their respective districts, which lists shall contain the names of persons doing business at each place, the character of business, the date of the license which shall include the year for which it is issued and the name therein; and in all cases of conviction for selling in said county without a license, the constable informing against the person so convicted shall receive the informer's portion of the fine imposed, when his name is endorsed on the back of the indictment by the grand jury. Each constable appointed by the county commissioners as inspector of license shall receive from them a fee of ten cents for each license inspected by him on making affidavit that he has personally inspected said license.

LEGAL NOTICES.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 3, sec. 134.

143. The advertisements, orders and notices required to be published in a newspaper or newspapers, by the circuit court for Baltimore county, the orphans' court for said county, the register of wills, the clerk of the circuit court, the county commissioners, and the sheriff of said county, shall be published in at least one newspaper in Baltimore county, out of the limits of the city of Baltimore, during the publication of a paper in said county.

LIQUOR AND INTOXICATING DRINKS.

1884, ch 359.

144. It shall not be lawful for any person, house, company, association or corporate body to sell, directly or indirectly, or to