

visions of this sub-title of this article, the said justice of the peace or judge shall either render a judgment of condemnation against the said canoe, boat or vessel, her tackle and furniture on board at the time of, or fine the said canoe, boat or vessel not less than twenty-five dollars, one-half of said fine to be paid to the informer, and the residue to the treasurer of the school board of said county, for the use of the school fund of said county.

1872, ch 131

192. The several justices of the peace and clerk of the circuit court for said county are authorized and required to pay to the treasurer of the school board of said county, every three months, all the money they may have in hand at such times, arising from fines, penalties or forfeitures imposed under this sub-title of this article.

Ibid.

193. No person shall, under any pretext whatever, remove or take away any shells from any of the rocks or flats whereon oysters grow, within the limits of said county; and any person violating this section shall be liable to a fine of twenty-five dollars, to be recovered as other fines, or by judgment of any of the justices of the peace of said county, one-half to be paid to the informer, and the residue to the treasurer of the school board of said county, for the benefit of the school fund of said county.

Ibid.

194. All oysters in the shell disposed of in the waters of said county, shall be measured in a sealed measure of any capacity, from half a bushel to two bushels, that may be agreed upon between the seller and buyer; and any person offending against the provisions of this section shall be subject to a fine of twenty-five dollars for each and every offence, to be recovered before any justice of the peace of said county; one-half to the informer and the other half to the treasurer of the school board of said county, for the benefit of the school fund of said county.

Ibid.

195. It shall be the duty of the purchaser or seller to have said measure duly inspected and sealed by the standard keeper under a forfeit of twenty-five dollars for each and every offence,
