

good order of said town, and to perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by them, and for this purpose he is vested with the same power and authority that constables have under the laws of this State.

1865, ch. 151.

212. They shall have full power and authority to straighten and widen old streets, and to lay out and grade new ones, when in their discretion the same may be necessary; and to provide for the payment of damages and expenses incurred by widening or opening streets, by levying and assessing the same generally upon the whole of the assessable property of said town, or upon the property of persons benefited thereby.

1886, ch. 173.

213. They may provide for levying and collecting, annually, a tax, not exceeding one dollar, on every dog, and two dollars on every bitch, within the limits of said corporation; and may also provide for the killing of every dog and bitch whose owner cannot be ascertained, or whose owner shall refuse to pay said tax within thirty days after a written notice has been delivered to him to pay the same.

Ibid.

214. They may provide for the levying and collecting of a special license or tax of ten dollars on each circus, and five dollars on each side-show, exhibiting within the corporate limits of Pocomoke city, and a special discretionary license tax on all smaller dramatic and other performances or entertainments for gain, not to exceed two dollars for each and every such performance.

1865, ch. 151.

215. Nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to authorize said corporation to issue any device, note, certificate or evidence of debt to be used as currency.

POCOMOKE RIVER.

1862, ch. 171.

216. It shall not be lawful for any person to throw or place into the waters of the Pocomoke river, for the purpose of taking or destroying fish therein, any lime, coculus indicus, otherwise