

three degrees west to the new lane; thence south sixty-three degrees west to the west side of the Virginia road; thence in a straight line to the north corner of a bridge, it being near to and north sixteen degrees east from the west corner of Isaac J. Davis' house; thence with the north side of said bridge, and the north and west banks of the ditch over which lies said bridge, to a branch in the county road leading to Lindseyville; thence north eighty-seven degrees west to a run which is near, and westerly from the house on the Farrow farm, and leads to Pocomoke river; thence with the east side of said run to a branch, near a gate, in the road leading to the farm of George S. Richardson; thence north twenty-eight degrees west to the Pocomoke river; thence with the south bank of said river to the place of beginning.

239. The legal voters of Snow Hill, who have resided within its corporate limits six months preceding the election, and the male citizens of Worcester county, of the age of twenty-one years and upwards, who own any interest in real estate or in houses in said town, shall elect by ballot, on the first Monday of May in every second year, accounting from the year eighteen hundred and eighty-two, three persons who are qualified voters of said town, to be commissioners of said town, to serve for two years from the date of their election and until their successors are elected and qualified.

240. All elections shall be held at the court house, and the judges thereof shall be two in number, to be designated and appointed by the clerk of the circuit court for Worcester county; the said judges shall appoint a clerk, and shall keep the polls open from ten o'clock in the morning until four o'clock in the afternoon; they shall carefully count, after the closing of the polls, the ballots taken by them, and, within two days after said election, shall make a true and correct return of the same, under their hands, to the clerk of the circuit court for said county, who shall forthwith issue certificates of election to the three persons appearing from the said returns to have received the highest number of votes, and the said certificates shall be recorded among the records of proceedings of the said commissioners.
