

or at its next session, if it be not in session, and to return said commitment or recognizance, with the names and residences of the witnesses for the prosecution endorsed thereon, forthwith to the clerk of said court; and the justice before whom the case is brought shall, in every such case, inform the person charged of his right to a jury trial.

148. State's attorneys and justices of the peace having knowledge of any previous conviction of any person accused of violating the provisions of sections 144, 145 and 146, in preparing warrants, presentments and indictments shall allege such previous conviction therein; and it shall be the duty of the clerk of the circuit court to furnish such information to the State's attorney and grand jury, but it shall not be necessary to set forth particularly in any such presentment or indictment the record of a former conviction, but it shall be sufficient to allege briefly that said person, corporation, company or association had been convicted of a violation of any of the provisions of said sections; and any such indictment or proceeding may be amended at any stage of the proceeding before final judgment, and as a matter of right.

149. The clerk of the circuit court shall not grant a license to any person to sell spirituous or fermented liquors of any kind at any place at or within one half mile, in any direction, of the village of Ashland, in said county; and any person selling any spirituous or fermented liquors, or any kind of intoxicating drink, whether of original manufacture or of a mixed character, within the above described limits, shall, on conviction, be subject to the same fines and punishments now provided by the code of public general laws for selling spirituous or fermented liquors without license.

150. It shall not be lawful for the clerk of the circuit court to issue a license to any person to sell spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer nearer the grounds of Emory Grove Association of Baltimore city, than one mile and a-half, in any direction; provided, nothing in this section shall be construed to
