STALLIONS.

1888, ch. 516.

260. The owner of any stallion may enter into a contract with the owner of any mare pledging the progeny of such mare by such stallion for the amount of the service money of such stallion; such contract shall be in writing, signed by the respective parties thereto, and attested by at least one witness, and shall be recorded in the office of the clerk of the county wherein such mare is situated, among the records of bills of sale, within twenty days after its date; and from and after the date of the record thereof, and for the space of one year from the date of the foaling of such progeny, the owner of said stallion shall have a lien upon said progeny for the amount of the service money aforesaid; and if the said owner of said mare, without the consent of the owner of said stallion first had and obtained in writing, shall remove such mare or foal out of the county where said contract is recorded, or shall secrete, destroy or sell the same, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon indictment therefor and conviction thereof, shall be fined or imprisoned, or both, in the same manner and to the same extent as provided for offenders against the provisions of section 111 of article 27 of the code of public general laws, title "Crimes and Punishments." This section shall apply only to the counties of Worcester, Wicomico, St. Mary's, Caroline and Anne Arundel.

Ibid.

261. If said service money shall not be paid, the owner of said stallion, upon applying to some justice of the peace of the
