

1888, ch. 344.

269. Any person who shall enter upon or cross over the premises or private property of any person in Worcester county, after having had a special written notice served upon him by the owner of said property, or by his agent, not to cross over or enter upon said premises or private property, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof before some justice of the peace of said county be fined by said justice not less than five nor more than fifty dollars, and in default of payment of said fine, together with costs of prosecution, shall be by said justice of the peace committed to the county jail for a period of twenty days.

Ibid.

270. All fines collected under the foregoing section shall be paid by the justice of the peace before whom such conviction shall be had, and whose duty it is hereby made to pay the same over to the county school commissioners of said county within a period of thirty days after having received the same.

WILD FOWL.

1880, ch. 160.

271. No person, between the tenth day of April and the first day of November, in each and every year, shall shoot or kill, or shoot at any wild water-fowl, within the limits of Worcester county.

Ibid.

272. No person, at any time, shall capture with nets any wild water-fowl within the limits of said county.

Ibid.

273. No person, during the hours intervening between twilight in the evening and twilight of the following morning, shall shoot or kill, or shoot at, by fire-light, any wild water-fowl within the limits of said county.

Ibid.

274. No person, during the hours intervening between twilight in the evening and twilight of the following morning, shall shoot or kill, or shoot at any wild water-fowl except from the shore, within the limits of said county.