

1874, ch. 164.

275. No person, at any time, shall kill or shoot at any wild fowl within the limits of Worcester county, with any swivel or pivot gun, or any kind of gun which cannot be conveniently discharged from the shoulder at arm's length and without a rest.

Ibid.

276. Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of the preceding section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before a justice of the peace, or upon indictment and conviction in the circuit court for Worcester county shall be fined not less than ten dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, and pay all costs; one-half of said fine to be paid to the informer; and in all cases of conviction of the party arrested, or sale of a gun, net, fire-light or boat, under this sub-title of this article, the officer making the arrest or seizure shall be entitled to a fee of ten dollars, to be collected from the party convicted, or from the proceeds of sale of said gun, net, fire-light or boat, in addition to all other costs.

Ibid.

277. When any person is convicted of the violation of any of the provisions of this sub-title of this article, and refuses, neglects or fails to pay the fine for which judgment is given against him, and all costs, he shall be committed to the county jail of Worcester county for not less than ten days nor more than forty days; but the party so committed shall be released on the payment of the fine, costs and jail expenses.

Ibid.

278. Upon information given upon oath to any justice of the peace of said county, of any violation of any of the provisions of this sub-title of this article, he shall issue his warrant for the arrest of the offender, and the seizure of the gun, net, fire-light or boat, together with the tackle or furniture on board; which warrant shall be directed to the sheriff or any constable of Worcester county, commanding the said sheriff or constable to bring the offender before some justice of the peace of said county.

Ibid.

279. When the sheriff or any constable of said county shall arrest any person for a violation of any of the provisions of the
