

prevent the clerk from renewing the license to any person to sell spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer within the said prescribed limits at any place where the same are now being sold.

1888, ch. 203.

151. It shall not be lawful for the clerk of the circuit court to issue a license to any person to sell spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer nearer the Hannah Moore Academy than one mile in any direction.

1876, ch. 313.

152. It shall not be lawful for the clerk of the circuit court to issue license to any person to sell spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer at or within one mile of the village of Hereford, in Baltimore county.

1870, ch. 457.

153. The clerk of the circuit court shall not grant a license to any person to sell spirituous or fermented liquors of any kind at any place within one mile of Holly Grove, and any person selling any spirituous or fermented liquors, or any other kind of intoxicating drink, whether of original manufacture or of a mixed character, within the above described limits, shall, on conviction, be subject to the same fines and punishments now provided by the code of public general laws, for selling spirituous or fermented liquors without license.

1888, ch. 347.

154. It shall not be lawful for the clerk of the circuit court to issue license to any person, firm or company, to sell any fermented or spirituous liquors or lager beer within one mile of the main factory building at Phoenix factory, Baltimore county; and any person, firm or company convicted of selling any fermented or spirituous liquors or lager beer within one mile of the said main factory building at Phoenix, shall be subject to a fine of not less than twenty dollars nor more than fifty dollars, in the discretion of the court, and stand committed to the jail until such fine and the costs of the prosecution are paid; one-half of the fine to go to the informer, the other half to the school fund of Baltimore county.