

timore, or to or from any other place of confinement, under the sentence, or final order of any authorized judicial authority, the sum of ten dollars for one person so carried and conveyed, and for each additional person so carried or conveyed at the same time, five dollars, and no more, unless the county commissioners shall be satisfied that extraordinary care and caution had to be exercised, accompanied with unusual danger, trouble or expense; and said compensation, so specified, shall be held to include all expenses incident to the carrying and conveying of such person; provided, that as far as is possible, the said sheriff shall convey, and shall be held and required to convey, to each of such institutions, all persons sentenced to be so conveyed at the same term of court. No other fees, perquisites or allowances whatsoever shall be granted, allowed or levied for said sheriff, except such as are specified in the code of public general laws relating to sheriffs.

ARTICLE III.—BALTIMORE COUNTY.

After section 70, insert as follows:

CRUELTY TO ANIMALS.

1880, ch. 139.

70A. The provisions of sections 242 to 245 of article 4 of the public local laws, title "City of Baltimore," relating to "Cruelty to Animals," shall apply to Baltimore county as fully as if repeated in this article.

ARTICLE IV.—CITY OF BALTIMORE.

After section 315, insert under sub-title "FIRE," the three following additional sections:

1888, ch 393.

315A. The board of fire commissioners of the city of Baltimore may retire from office in the fire department any permanent or call member thereof who has become permanently disabled while in the actual performance of duty, or who has performed faithful service in the department for a period of not less than twenty consecutive years, and place the member so retired upon a pension roll.