

said impounding by advertisement at one or more public places within the same limits, describing the stock so impounded, and that the same will be sold at public auction at some public place, within said limits, within ten days; provided, that if the owner of any stock impounded under this section shall prove to the satisfaction of the justice of the peace that the said stock did not go at large from negligence or want of care on his part, and that due diligence was used to prevent it, the owner shall have return of the property on paying all expenses of keeping and all costs whatever incurred, and one dollar for taking up each of said stock.

1872, ch. 283. 1878, ch. 187. 1880, ch. 424.

166. Said justice of the peace shall be fully authorized to make sale of such stock if not returned as aforesaid; and out of all moneys arising from such sale made in execution of the two preceding sections, he shall pay to the party taking up, if a constable or public officer, and impounding said stock, one dollar for his services therein, and also all other expenses incurred, and the remainder to the owner who may establish claim to said property; and in the event of no such claimant appearing within thirty days thereafter, then the balance shall be paid into the school fund of Baltimore county.

NUISANCES.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 3, sec. 135.

167. No person shall haul, cart, carry, drag or deposit any dead carcass or other carrion in Baltimore county, within one mile of the city of Baltimore, unless he shall bury, or cause the same to be buried at least two feet under ground, and so as effectually to prevent any offensive smell therefrom, under the penalty of twenty dollars for each offence, together with the expense of burying or removing the same.

Ibid. sec. 136.

168. No person shall keep and maintain any kennel or pack of hounds, or any number of that species of dogs, exceeding three, within Baltimore county, within one mile of the city of Baltimore; and any person keeping and maintaining, or causing
