

to be kept and maintained, any number of hounds, contrary to the provisions of this section, shall forfeit and pay the sum of twenty dollars for every such offence, and shall moreover be subject to pay the further sum of one dollar per day for each day the said hounds, exceeding as above, shall be so kept or maintained thereafter.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 3, sec. 137.

169. Any person who shall bury or remove any dead carcass or offensive carrion, thrown out and deposited contrary to the provisions of the two preceding sections, shall recover, before any justice of the peace, against the person guilty of such offence, all expenses thereby incurred in burying and removing the same.

Ibid. sec. 138.

170. All fines and forfeitures accruing under the three preceding sections may be recovered before any justice of the peace for Baltimore county, one-half for the use of said county, and the other for the use of the informer; and it shall be the duty of such justices, respectively, to receive one-half of all such fines and forfeitures, and to render an account thereof to the county commissioners annually in the month of October, and to pay the amount to them

ORPHANS' COURT.

1868, ch. 98.

171. The orphans' court of Baltimore county shall meet on Tuesday and Wednesday of each week at ten o'clock A. M., and continue their sessions for such length of time and on such days as in their judgment the public interests require.

Ibid.

172. There shall be allowed the said judges, the sum of five cents per mile for each mile traveled by them in going to and returning from the said sessions of the orphans' court, to be paid by the county commissioners, on the certificate of the register of wills for said county.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 3, sec. 141.

173. The judge of said court may appoint a baliff, who shall attend each sitting of the court, and perform such duties as the