POLICE AND POLICE STATIONS.

1886, ch. 486

174. The county commissioners are authorized and required to appoint such number of policemen as they may deem necessary for the better protection of persons and property in Baltimore county, one of whom shall have control of said police force, and shall be designated as marshal; they shall equip and arm said force, and make such rules and regulations for their proper government and discipline as they may deem best to promote the efficiency of the same—a copy of which rules and regulations shall be furnished to each officer, as well as to the marshal, who shall see that they are strictly enforced.

Ibid.

175. It shall be the duty of said marshal to require each policeman at such times of the day or night as he may be upon duty, to preserve the public peace, prevent crime, and protect the rights of persons and property; to see that all laws relating to the observance of Sunday, and in regard to gambling, intemperance, vagrants and disorderly persons, are strictly enforced, and to assist the sanitary officer of his district to enforce faithfully and strictly all laws, rules and orders that now exist or which may hereafter be passed or issued for the purpose of maintaining and preserving the public health; and to arrest all offenders against the laws of the State, and to take such offenders to the nearest justice of the peace for said county; and for any neglect or violation of the provisions of this section by any officer of the force, said marshal shall suspend such officer and report his action in the case, with the charges preferred in writing against such officer to the county commissioners at their next meeting, for their investigation and final action.

176. The pay of each footman shall be not less than two dollars per day, and the pay of the marshal and four chiefs of divi-
