

1874, ch. 213.

182. If any such railroad company or corporation owning or using any track shall fail, neglect or refuse to comply with the provisions of the preceding section, it shall be liable to a fine of not less than twenty-five nor more than fifty dollars for each and every day of failure, neglect or refusal to comply with said provisions, to be collected as small fines are collected under the laws of this State.

Ibid.

183. If any such railroad company or corporation has now constructed or shall hereafter construct any tunnel or bridge at any crossing intersecting a point mentioned or designated in section 181, to be guarded and provided as required by said section 181, so far above or below the grade of such crossing, intersection or point designated, as not to endanger the safety of any passenger, horseman or vehicle passing over or under said railroad track, then it shall be relieved from compliance with the terms and provisions of said section 181, at the place so bridged or tunneled as aforesaid; the construction of any such bridge or tunnel to be subject to the approval of the county commissioners.

Ibid.

184. All railroad companies now in existence, or hereafter to be created, shall have authority to raise or lower any public road, avenue, street or other highways in said county, in such manner as to enable said company to pass such road, avenue, street or highway, under or over such railroad; but such work of raising or depression shall be done in a manner satisfactory to the county commissioners.

REGISTER OF WILLS.

185. The register of wills for Baltimore county shall keep a general alphabet or index to the record of the wills, and of such other matters recorded in said office as the public convenience may require, and shall be entitled to demand and receive from the party for whom the service is performed, ten cents for each will or other matter entered therein.
