

tem shall require at least one-third of the road tax to be expended in the purchase of stone or other suitable hard materials for the purpose of macadamizing the roads of said district; and provided, also, that whenever any taxpayer shall desire to work out two-thirds of his road tax by hauling stone or other hard materials upon the county road nearest his farm, at the price fixed for the same by the road commissioners of said district, he shall be granted the privilege, and the said road commissioners shall fix a uniform price for said hard materials as far as practicable, subject to confirmation by the county commissioners.

1878, ch. 340.

190. Within ten days after receiving notice of their appointment, and having taken the oath of office, they shall proceed to organize their respective boards, and shall meet for the transaction of business at such time and place as they may determine, and when called by the chairman; and they shall divide their respective districts into three sub-districts, as nearly equal in extent as practicable, and shall assign to each commissioner the sub-district over which he shall have special supervision.

Ibid.

191. Each commissioner shall keep a record of all work and other transactions pertaining to the roads in his sub-district, and shall furnish to the county commissioners, on the first Tuesday of each month, a statement of the amount of labor performed or materials furnished, the cost of the same and to whom due; and said statement shall embrace, as near as possible, the entire expenses of his sub-district for the preceding month.

Ibid.

192. All road commissioners shall be subject to removal by the county commissioners, for neglect or refusal to comply with the duties of their office; provided, they shall be notified of the charge against them in writing by the county commissioners, and summoned to appear before them at a stated time and answer the charge; and if any commissioner shall resign or be removed, his place shall be filled by the county commissioners within thirty days after such resignation or removal.
