

1878, ch. 340.

200. The board of examiners shall then return to the county commissioners the plat aforesaid, together with a report signed by them, or a majority of them, stating that they have judged said road, or the alteration or closing of said road, to be for the benefit and convenience of the public, and their reasons therefor; and if they determine that the application of the petitioners should not be granted, they, or a majority of them, shall return to the county commissioners a report declaring such opinion, and their reasons therefor; and every new road opened shall be designated by the county commissioners by some name or number, and indexed in such name or number.

Ibid.

201. Whenever any road shall be located and surveyed as a public road, the board of examiners shall make an estimate of the cost of said road, and shall assess the damages and benefits of the same upon the individuals interested, and the district, respectively, in such proportions as they may deem just and proper, and shall furnish to the county commissioners a report of such assessment; and if any person or body corporate, or district, shall feel aggrieved by the award, report, return or proceedings of said board of examiners, he, or it, within thirty days after said report is filed in the office of the county commissioners, shall file his, or its objection, in writing; and the county commissioners, after five days' notice to each side interested, or as soon thereafter as practicable, shall proceed to consider the award, return, report, plat and proceedings of said examiners, and all the proceedings in said case; and they may ratify and confirm, reject, reverse, alter, amend or correct award, return, report, plat and proceedings, in said case, or may, in their discretion, send back to said examiners the award, return, report, plat and proceedings, for alteration, correction or amendment; and any person interested in said proceedings may appeal from the final order of ratification or rejection of the county commissioners of said county to the circuit court; provided, said appeal is taken within thirty days from the passage of said final order of ratification or rejection; and provided further, that the cost of the record in case of appeal shall be paid or tendered to the clerk of the county commissioners within thirty days from the date of said appeal; and in
