

1888, ch. 546.

249. Two-fifths the width of all streets and avenues in Baltimore county shall be set apart for footways or walks, viz: one-fifth to be laid off on each side of said streets and avenues.

SWINE.

1870, ch. 265.

250. It shall not be lawful for any person to allow swine to run at large in any part of Baltimore county which lies within the distance of fifteen miles from the bounds of Baltimore city.

Ibid.

251. Any person may impound any swine found going at large in any part of said county not distant from the bounds of Baltimore city more than fifteen miles, belonging to any inhabitants thereof; and the owner of such swine, on reclaiming the same shall pay at the rate of twenty-five cents per head for every twenty-four hours such swine may have been impounded, after any swine so impounded shall be advertised by notice in writing, set up at two of the most public places in the election district wherein such swine may have been impounded.

Ibid.

252. If any swine shall remain so impounded for five days after notice given as aforesaid, the party so impounding it or them may sell the same at public auction, after five days' notice, set up as provided in the preceding section, for the payment of costs and expenses, including the said twenty-five cents per day.

Ibid.

253. All disputes which may arise between the owner of any swine and the persons so impounding it or them, shall be determined by a justice of the peace for said county, who may summon witnesses and decide the matter in controversy.

TOWSON.

1878, ch. 41.

254. It shall not be lawful for any person to allow his stock, of any kind, including horses, mules, horned cattle and
