

144. Penalties recovered, how to be expended
 145. Livery stable keepers to have lien upon horses and vehicles for charges.
 146. Upon failure of owners to pay charges, may sell, proceedings
 147. What necessary before justice issues his warrant authorizing sale, proviso.

Chimneys.

- 148 Powers of mayor and city council in relation to.

Coroners, Inquests and Dead Bodies.

149. Appointment, number, term, salary, oath and bond of coroners
 150. Assignment of coroners to districts, absence or illness of, who to act.
 151. Inquests over what bodies to be held; no fees to jury, expenses of interment of unclaimed bodies, how paid.
 152. Monthly report to be made to police board, what to contain, property found on bodies, what to be done with
 153. Bodies, how distributed for purposes of medical science, exceptions
 154. Bond of physicians receiving such dead bodies, unlawful traffic in, penalty.

Courts

Superior Court, Court of Common Pleas, and Baltimore City Court.

- 155 Judges of, respectively, to hear motions for new trial and in arrest of judgment and all matters of law.
 156. Paper book of evidence or briefs not required in cases in.
 157 Terms of said courts.
 158. Return days of
- 159 Writs, when returnable
 160. Original writs unexecuted, renewal of.
 161. Proceedings upon return of any writ or process.
 162. Failure of defendant to appear when summoned; practice
 163 Failure of defendant to plead when summoned and served with declaration
 164. Titling, practice when suit brought upon
 165. When suits in which defendants are summoned shall stand for trial; practice.
 166 When and for how long postponement may be ordered instead of continuance.
 167. Where in suits upon contract, plaintiff files affidavit to his claim, defendant must swear to his plea, requisites of plea and affidavit thereto; practice.
 168. Plaintiff's affidavit, by and before whom to be made, voucher of his claim to be filed with affidavit
 169 Court without jury may assess damages.
 170. Bills of exception to be signed within thirty days after verdict; enlargement of time by court, to be signed before verdict, if required
 171. Judgments to be considered enrolled at the end of thirty days thereafter, extent of revisory power of court after lapse of thirty days.
 172. Acts heretofore required to be done during term must be done within thirty days after act proposed to be affected thereby.
 173. Appeals from justices of the peace, when to stand for trial; costs before justice to be first paid.