

- 601 Any two judges to be a quorum.
- 602 State's peremptory right to challenge.
603. Grand jury to visit the jail at each term of court
604. Failure of judges, clerks or sheriff to comply with provisions of this sub-title not to vitiate or affect any indictment or be ground for reversing or arresting any judgment.
- Pay of Jurors.*
605. Rate of, certificate to be furnished by the clerk.
- Volunteer Militia Exempt from Jury Duty*
606. Active and honorary members of volunteer militia to be exempt from jury duty upon filing their certificates of membership with the clerk before drawing of jury.
- Justices of the Peace and Constables
- Justices of the Peace.*
607. Number of justices in Baltimore city.
- 608 Bond.
609. Office hours daily.
610. Not to issue summons or execution without order of plaintiff or his attorney, penalty.
611. Summons, where returnable; election of defendant to have case tried before justice of the ward in which he resides.
612. May receive additional fees when called out of their offices.
613. Shall keep offices within legislative district from which they are appointed; exception.
- 614 Governor to designate one justice for each station-house; attendance of such justices at station-houses.
615. Duties and jurisdiction of such station-house justices.
616. Justices to impose fine or fine and imprisonment prescribed by law upon all persons convicted by them; commitment in default of payment.
617. Jury trial in criminal court if prayed by parties accused; commitment or recognizance for.
618. Station-house justices may be changed by governor.
619. Salary of station-house justices.
620. Substitute in case of sickness or inability to attend, to be selected by police board; compensation of.
621. Leave of absence to station-house justices
622. No fees to such justices for issuing any criminal process; nor to any policeman or constable for serving the same.
623. Police to execute writs issued by station-house justices.
624. Writs for arrest of parties for violation of law to be returnable to one of the station-house justices.
- 625 Police officer or constable making arrest to take party before station-house justice.
- 626 Station-house justices to file with clerk of court of common pleas quarterly reports of fines, forfeitures and penalties imposed by them for violation of State laws, and pay over to him amounts collected.
627. Similar quarterly reports and payment to register of city of fines, forfeitures and penalties imposed and collected for violation of city ordinances.
- 628 To file affidavit if no fines have been imposed or collected,
629. Costs to be paid to police board; how to be applied.