

858. Tenant for a period less than a year holding over, notice to.
859. Tenants at will, sufferance or pur autre vie, notice to.
860. Notice by tenants mentioned in three preceding sections.
861. Notice to be in writing, service of
862. Notice, form of
863. Such notice to entitle landlord to summary remedy by ejectment
864. Parties may agree upon what notice to be given.
865. One justice of the peace to have power to try the case
866. Proceedings when summons for tenant is returned non est.
867. Interrogatories to be answered by tenant.
868. Time within which tenant to answer interrogatories.
869. Service of interrogatories.
870. Judgment, what justice to give when he decides against tenant
871. Judgment, what justice to give when he decides against landlord.
872. Tenant holding over after receiving notice to quit, may be held as tenant at a double rent
873. Appeals from decisions of justices, stay of execution.
874. When such appeal may be taken.
875. Judgment of justice not to be reversed for matter of form, proceedings in court.
876. When such appeal to be tried.
877. To what persons provisions of this sub-title to apply
- Vagrants, Paupers, Beggars, Vagabonds and Disorderly Persons.
878. Arrest of, by order of criminal court or justice of the peace.
879. Who to be deemed.
880. Arrest of, by police, when to be made.
881. Commitment to almshouse
882. Or other place of refuge or correction.
883. To be detained at almshouse or such other places.
884. To be made to work.
885. Period of detention.
886. Officers of almshouse and other places of refuge and correction may make rules for the government of such persons
887. Commitment of minors to almshouse or other suitable place.
888. Binding out of such minors.
889. Who to be deemed minors
890. Orphans' court to have concurrent jurisdiction in such cases.
891. How cases of vagrants and beggars shall be tried in criminal court
892. Jury trial to be allowed, if demanded
893. Fees of justices, clerk of criminal court, register of wills, sheriff, constable and policeman in these cases.
- Vagrant Children.
894. No girl under sixteen or boy under fourteen to be allowed to enter or remain in dance-house, concert saloon or variety show unaccompanied by parent or guardian; penalty.
895. Children begging or peddling
896. Arrest of vagrant children, commitment to orphan asylum or other charitable institution.
897. Pretended parents of such children, penalty
- Boys' Home.*
- 898-900. Objects and powers.
- Dolan's Children's Aid Society.*
901. Powers of.
- Hebrew Orphan Asylum.*
902. Powers of.