

therefor, at a rate of interest not exceeding six per cent., and payable in not less than thirty or more than fifty years, with interest payable semi-annually, and may levy a tax to pay the interest thereon, and provide a sinking fund for the redemption of said bonds.

Taylor v. M. & C. C. of Cumberland, 64 Md 68

1878, ch. 484.

64. All orders or resolutions for the appropriation of money from the city treasury, whether for special or general purposes, and all ordinances passed by the city council, shall be attested by the clerk and approved by the mayor; if the mayor shall disapprove any ordinance, resolution or order so passed by the city council, he shall return the same with his reasons therefor at the next regular or special meeting of said council, when, if passed by two-thirds of all the members elected to said council, it shall be an ordinance, resolution or order, to all intents and purposes as if it had been approved by the mayor; and if the mayor shall fail to return any ordinance, resolution or order so passed by said city council, with his approval or disapproval, within six days after the passage thereof by said council, then such ordinance, resolution or order shall be taken and considered as approved by him, and shall be as valid and binding as if actually so approved; and the passage of all ordinances and of all resolutions or orders for the appropriation of money shall be by yeas or nays, entered on the journal of said city council, and the affirmative vote of a majority of all the members elected to said body shall be necessary to pass any ordinance or any resolution or order for the appropriation of money.

Ibid.

65. Said city council may provide by ordinance for the codification of all ordinances which have been or may hereafter be passed by it, and for the printing of such codification thereof; and the printed copy thereof issued by authority and under the sanction of said body, shall be legal evidence of the passage of said ordinances and the contents thereof in any court of law or equity in this State.

1882, ch. 360.

66. The mayor and city council shall have power to provide for the laying out, opening, extending, widening, straightening