

award, judgment or decision of the said court or board of arbitration by any final process of execution otherwise than is directed in the succeeding section.

1878, ch. 383.

67. When, in any such case so submitted as is hereinbefore provided, an award, judgment or decision shall have been rendered by the said court or board of arbitration, that is, according to the rules and regulations hereinbefore authorized, final and conclusive upon the parties, and shall have been recorded by the clerk of the said court in a book to be provided and kept for the purpose within a time limited therefor in the said rules and regulations, the successful party shall have the right to have the said original award, judgment or decision in writing, signed by those members of the said court or board concurring therein, and duly certified by the clerk to be the original award, judgment or decision, under his hand and seal of the corporation; and if the said award, judgment or decision shall be for the recovery by the one party and payment to him by the other, of a certain sum of money, the said successful party shall, upon his filing the said award, judgment or decision so certified, with the clerk of the superior court of Baltimore city, or at his option with the clerk of the court of common pleas of said city, have the right to have the same entered by its proper style, in the name of such successful party as plaintiff against the losing party as defendant, in its order of time, upon the court calendar or docket of causes to be called at the next succeeding term or rule day of said court, whichever shall first occur, and upon the call thereof in its course, to have judgment at once ordered and entered up, as upon a verdict for the recovery of the same amount, according to the practice of said court, and to have process of execution for its enforcement and satisfaction in all respects as if the said amount had been recovered by a judgment of the said court in a regular suit between the same parties in the same relative position on the record, there instituted and prosecuted in the ordinary modes of proceeding therein; but if the said award, judgment or decision shall be for the recovery by the one party, and the surrender or delivery by the other to him of the possession of specific property, the said successful party, upon filing such award, judgment or
