

a misdemeanor, and on conviction shall be fined in a sum not exceeding five hundred dollars; and it shall be the duty of the court before whom such conviction is had to transmit forthwith a particular report thereof to the governor, who may, in his discretion, inhibit, during his pleasure, the person convicted from acting as auctioneer.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 4, sec. 111.

100. The mayor of the city may designate the place or places for the sale of horses and carriages and make such regulations in respect to the time and manner of selling horses and carriages at auction, and the riding and driving of such horses and carriages, as he shall deem best calculated to promote public convenience and protect the persons of individuals from danger.

Ibid. sec. 112.

101. Every auctioneer appointed and licensed for the sale of horses shall keep a registry of all horses sold by him, specifying a description of the horse sold, the sum for which he sold, and the name and residence of the seller and buyer, and shall deposit such registry, with an oath of the truth thereof, at the end of each year, with the clerk of the court of common pleas.

Ibid. sec. 113.

102. No auctioneer specially licensed for selling books, maps or prints shall be entitled to demand or receive, without a previous agreement to the contrary, from any person, directly or indirectly, a commission exceeding seven dollars and fifty cents for every one hundred dollars of the purchase-money arising from such sales, exclusive of all duties.

Ibid. sec. 114.

103. No auctioneer licensed to sell to the amount of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, without a previous agreement to the contrary, shall be entitled to demand or receive for his services, directly or indirectly, a commission exceeding four dollars, clear of all duties, for every hundred dollars of the purchase money arising from such sales.
