

1865, ch. 90.

142. All penalties which shall be incurred under this sub-title of this article, or for the breach of any of its provisions, may be recovered by warrant issued in the name of the State, in the same manner as debts within said city are recoverable, with the right of appeal to the Baltimore city court.

P. L. L., (1860,) art 4, sec. 147.

143. On the trial of such appeal, the party of whom the penalty is claimed shall be entitled to a jury trial; but there shall be no stay of execution of any judgment appealed from, unless the party appealing shall give bond, with security approved by the officer rendering such judgment, and conditioned that the party appealing shall prosecute the appeal with effect, and obey, perform and pay such judgment as shall be rendered by the Baltimore city court on the trial of said appeal.

Ibid. sec. 148.

144. All penalties which shall be recovered for the breach of any of the provisions of this sub-title of this article, shall be appropriated one-half to the use of the dispensaries in the city of Baltimore, to be equally divided between them, and the other half to the use of the informer, whose name shall be endorsed on the warrant issued for the recovery of each respective penalty.

1865, ch. 163.

145. It shall be lawful for any livery stable keeper to retain in his custody any horse, mare or gelding placed under his care for livery, and also any vehicle, until all charges for so keeping shall be paid by the owner thereof.

Ibid.

146. It shall and may be lawful for such livery stable keeper to sell any such horse, mare or gelding, or vehicle, at public auction in the city of Baltimore, after giving at least twenty days' notice in two of the daily newspapers published in the city of Baltimore, of the time, place and manner of sale; and after deducting the amount due for keeping, together with all expenses
